AICD calls for nominations for PwC Director Award for Excellence in the WA Not-for-Profit sector

The Australian Institute of Company Directors (AICD) is inviting nominations from WA based directors in the Not-For-Profit sector for the PwC Director Award for Excellence.

The Award acknowledges a director who has exhibited leadership on director issues and promoted excellence in governance to achieve positive impact for society.

Eligibility criteria includes:

- A board member, director or chair of at least one not-for-profit organisation in WA;
- Demonstrated contribution to the WA community through their board work in the not-for-profit sector;
- Embodies directorial values of excellence and integrity;
- Leads by example on corporate governance

Nominations close 31 August 2018 and can be made by contacting wa@aicd.com.au

The award winner will receive a scholarship to attend a not-for-profit course scheduled by AICD. Their represented not-for-profit will be the charitable partner for the WA Division of AICD for 12 months and be invited to represent at key events including the 2019 Gala Dinner. They will also be given the opportunity to contribute an article and have a feature profile written in the AICD WADirector Newsletter.

Access to PwC's 'Open Innovation Platform' - an online marketplace designed to connect governments and businesses to a network of thousands of innovators from small to medium enterprises – will also be made available to the award winner.

Jody Nunn, AICD State Manager WA said: "Not-for-Profit is a thriving sector, over 40% of our membership are involved in this sector in some way. There are some excellent candidates in this sector that should be recognised, and we encourage nominations from across the state."

The AICD provides professional development and networking opportunities for senior executives and directors, supporting them in confronting the challenges they face as business leaders and board members. As well as delivering meaningful programs to the director community across business, government and the not-for-profit sector, the AICD aims to positively impact society and the economy through governance education and advocacy.
